Employee Leave Policy Handbook (2026 Edition)

1. Annual Leave Quota

Every full-time, confirmed employee is entitled to 18 paid leave days per calendar year. This is a combined pool used for casual leave and sick leave. Leave does not carry forward to the next calendar year.

2. Probation Period

Employees who joined the company less than 6 months ago are on probation and are not entitled to apply for paid leave. Probation employees should be informed to contact HR directly for any urgent absence.

3. Advance Notice

Leave requests must be submitted at least 1 day before the requested leave date, except for medical emergencies, which may be applied for on the same day.

4. Maximum Consecutive Leave

An employee may not apply for more than 5 consecutive leave days through the self-service system. Requests longer than 5 consecutive days require direct manager approval outside this system.

5. Insufficient Balance

If an employee's remaining leave balance is lower than the number of days requested, the leave request must be rejected. Partial leave cannot be auto-approved.

6. Zero Balance

An employee with 0 remaining leave days cannot apply for any further paid leave for the rest of the calendar year.

7. Record Keeping

Every approved leave must be deducted from the employee's remaining leave balance in the HR database immediately after approval, and the last leave date must be updated.
